Earl L. Robinette

Earl has a long time connection to art, higher education and the local area. He graduated from Clare High School in 1954 and attended Central Michigan University before and after a tour of duty in the Army. Earl went on to teach art at St. Clair County Community College for 37 years and continued his artistic pursuits along the way.

"I have a great love of nature, wildlife and the great outdoors," noted Robinette. "The woods, the wildflowers, swamps, creeks, rivers, and lakes are diamonds to my minds eye."

A program sponsored by the MMCC Foundation

Proceeds from A Northern Tradition help support the Foundation's Students of Promise program. SOP promotes cultural awareness, academic achievement, higher education, and social development to academically promising students who face significant challenges in their lives. For more information, visit midmich.edu/sop.
