

Three Men, a Small Cemetery, and the Great War

How a visit to a small, rural Clare County cemetery, helped further a story begun a century ago.

A presentation by Marty Johnson, Clare County Historical Society, done in conjunction with the current exhibit on World War I in the lower level of the library to mark the 100th anniversary of this country's entry into the war. There is no charge for the presentation or the exhibit, which runs thru April 14.

Monday, April 10 at 1—2 p.m.

Pere Marquette District Library, Clare.
